PRINCIPLES OF MANUAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Instructor: Lydia Nelson

Dates: Tuesdays, September 25, October 2, 9, & 16

Time: 6:00-7:00pm

Location: BOCES Media Center

Cost: $50

Get that fancy camera out of auto and take your photos to the next level! We'll cover manual exposure, understanding depth of field, how and when to freeze movement or creatively blur it, basics of composition, when B&W is a good idea and when it isn't, how to let your photo tell a story, and other tips and techniques for getting the images you want. We'll also take a little "field trip" to practice in real time and bring back our work for constructive feedback as we learn together. A DSLR camera is highly recommended for this course, since we will be covering manual exposure and settings.

Registration Deadline: September 19th

Class maximum: 10 Participants

Behavior Management

Date: Thursday, September 20

Time: 7:00-9:00 pm

Location: BOCES Media Center

Child Care Technical Assistance is offering a two hour free workshop on observing and assessing challenging behaviors in the classroom. This workshop will share information on child development, guidance and observation tools to better understand child behaviors. Technical Assistance Coach, Penny Hotovec, will also be offering onsite visits to homes and centers to assist in utilizing the tools presented during the workshop. These on site visits are not mandatory but can be very beneficial in implementing new tools provided during the workshop .

Contact Penny Hotovec at 307-754-2245 x 22 or penny.hotovec@wyo.gov for registration or more information.

Substitute Teacher Training - EDUC 1520

This course provides the training needed for the Wyoming Professional Teaching Standards Board Classroom Substitute Permit and is for those who do not have the Substitute Teacher Permit. Students will work to demonstrate competence in age level communication skills, use and application of lesson plans, use of instructional technology and professional attitudes and behaviors. Upon completion of this class students must make application to the WPTSB for the permit.

Note: To qualify for a Classroom Substitute permit, students must complete 30 hours of classroom observation. Hours must consist of 10 hours in each educational level (Elementary, junior high/middle school, and high school). These observations will not be a graded part of class. Students will arrange the observations with their school districts.
